

LAKER WRESTLING CLINIC

Featuring: John Clark

John Clark is currently an Assistant Coach at Brown University of the Ivy League. Clark, a two-time NCAA All-American at Ohio State University and works prominently with the Bear's middleweights. He is a former assistant coach at Lehigh and Stanford Universities.

Clark won a pair of state championships at Canton-Potsdam High School in New York before moving on to Ohio State. A four-year starter for the Buckeyes, Clark won 134 career bouts good for fourth on the school's all-time list. Clark placed all four years at the Big Ten Championships, twice finishing as a runner up at 165. He earned All-American honors after his junior and senior seasons, finishing sixth in 2003 and fifth in 2004.

After earning his degree in sociology from Ohio State in 2004 and spending a year in sales, Clark joined the coaching staff at Stanford, before moving to Lehigh University and working under Olympic Coach, Greg Strobel.
